Skylight CWC programs are run by staff and volunteers in conjunction with participants. No referral is required.

The Activity Program promotes well being in a supportive environment by offering opportunities for individuals to progress their recovery and prevent relapse by improving their ability to manage their illness. This occurs by providing a place where people can build skills, develop friendships, be accepted, and connect with the community.

The Activity Program provides a flexible and supportive environment in which individuals can choose to participate in activities whilst socialising and meeting new people. Staff are friendly and approachable and will support and assist people to participate in the range of programs available. Orientation to the program is a requirement for participation.

Skylight respectfully acknowledges Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as the traditional custodians of this land and celebrates all people who call this land home.
